

NIOK SOCCER TOURNAMENT 2010

Dear NIOK PhD

NIOK presents the famous NIOK SOCCER TOURNAMENT!

This tournament is intended to be an annual event in which all groups involved in NIOK are expected to send their 'delegation' that will compete against each other. As a novelty this year some members of KNCV (company people and professors "skilled" in soccer) might also play. The winner team will get the NIOK Soccer Cup and infinite glory.

This year the tournament will be held on Friday 2nd of July in Utrecht, at SV Kampong Voetbal, at the Laan van Maarschalkerweerd 2 (see attached maps for details). People travelling by train are advised to take trains 41 or 43 from Utrecht Centraal (check <http://journeyplanner.9292.nl/Default.aspx> for more details). The matches, of ~ 30min each, will be played on artificial grass and will start at 12 am (try to arrive 30 minutes before) and should end before 5 pm. After the tournament, a BBQ & drinks event will take place and will be kindly sponsored by NIOK. Also, there will be an opportunity to watch the quarter final matches of the football world cup live at the location (matches start at 16:00 and 20:30). We kindly ask teams to bring their own T-shirts and notify us the color of them before the tournament takes place. This social event is open to all NIOK PhDs, so if you don't want to play soccer but want to give moral support to your group by showing your cheerleader skills, you are more than welcome! If any PhD wants to play soccer but cannot form a team, please register and we will arrange a team for you.

If you have special needs regarding food, dressing rooms or you have questions, do not hesitate to communicate them also to us. Please register your team before 22nd of June, sending an email to peterspanring@gmail.com with the following information:
